China, US tensions: Next 10 months are 'critical' to avoid war

A U.S.-China cold war would not be like the U.S.-Soviet one, which was largely military and ideological. A cold war would begin with radical decoupling and disengagement, which regrettably we are ...

Avoiding a new Cold War between the US and China

Trump should keep these issues in mind—incorporating ‘America first’ and recognizing China's ascent—when changing American foreign policy toward Asia in order to avoid war with China. He should make two major adjustments to Asian foreign policy that break from the past decade: emphasize economic over military engagement, and concentrate on core alliances rather than expand security ...
