Kenneth Copeland is a multi-millionaire — a self-proclaimed billionaire, in fact — with a personal private jet and a mansion fit for a king. Copeland has gained his wealth by fleecing unsuspecting people in the name of Jesus in exchange for a false gospel — the prosperity gospel. Copeland's great-grandson reportedly died in a swimming pool [...]

6 Benny Hinn Regrets His Prosperity (As The IRS Closes In). Like many "healers" and basic cable holy men who've been in the game for a while, Benny Hinn has no shortage of the kind of controversies and debacles that might cause a reasonable person to doubt his supernatural abilities. Most recently, a legally blind recipient of one of his "BAM you're healed" spectacles actually came forward to ...

Both Benny Hinn and Kenneth Copeland have said that any "anointed" Christian could also have died for the sins of the world just as Jesus did and that they could have done it. This is a complete misunderstanding and corruption of both the dual nature of Jesus and of the term "anointing". The word "anointed" is being misused all over the place ...

The Five Basic Doctrines

What Are Doctrines? The word doctrine comes from the Greek word didache: "teaching."A doctrine is a belief (or system of beliefs) accepted as authoritative. Robert M. Bowman defines doctrine as the "[c]ontent of teaching intended to be accepted and believed as truth." 1. In most religions, certain doctrines are considered essential to the belief system.
