This year to get my kids ready for finding the theme in poetry, I finally decided to make a notes sheet of all things I do when I find the theme. I focused on 6 steps: looking at the title, paraphrasing when we can, thinking about connotations, author's attitude and feelings, shifts in mood and tone, and finally checking out the title again.

Poetry is a way of rescuing the world from oblivion by the practice of attention. It is our attention that honors and gives value to living things, that gives them their proper name and particularity; that retrieves them from the obscurity of the general. Poems that galvanize my attention shake me awake.

1. How is Donne a Metaphysical poet?
Answer: Metaphysical poetry is distinguished by several unique features; unique metaphors, large and cosmic themes, absence of narrative, and philosophical ideas. Donne invented or originated many of these features in his poetry, and he was a master of this type. Metaphysical poetry may be lyrical in its tone, but its driving force is not necessarily the ...
