Yorkshire In Watercolour

Landscape Watercolour of Staithes, 15" x 11". High Tide (I think) at Staithes, a pretty fishing village on the North Yorkshire coast. The backdrop to the town are the very warm red cliffs that rise up in distinct layers. I think the blueish blob on the water surface must have been a happy accident.

Yorkshire In Watercolour

I tried watercolour painting and immediately found inspiration in the Dales and on the fells, helped by the fact that all my life I had walked and explored the countryside here. I love the peace, the views where the world stretches in front of you for miles, the call of the curlew, and the buildings and history in a landscape farmed for ...
